To All Students,

Takanori Ueda
President of the University of Fukui

Classes for 2021 Fall Semester

We have decided to hold classes for the fall semester according to the policy that we have already announced. We would like to ask all the students to prepare for classes for this coming semester.

When the class policy is changed depending on the future infection situation, we will promptly inform everyone through the Student Portal and the university website.

1. Class Policy for Fall Semester

- Basically Face-to-Face for both General Education and Specialized Education
- Classes which have a large number of students may be offered online (On-demand, Combination with face-to-face is desirable).

*For details of the class schedule, please check the class timetable.

We will continue to implement the infection prevention measures as below;

- Securing social distance with the number of students set as the exam capacity (sitting in every other seat)
- Distributing hand sanitizer to every lecture room and providing appropriate ventilation
- Setting acrylic partitions on instructors' desks
- Setting acrylic partitions on students' desks in some lecture rooms
- Congestion reducing measures by the cafeteria and Co-op shop on Bunkyo campus

*Avoiding crowded spaces by extending lunch break by 30 minutes (12:00-13:30)

*Extensions of lunch breaks are implemented on Bunkyo and Tsuruga campuses.

2. Preparations for the Fall Semester

- If you are staying in your hometown or some other place outside Fukui prefecture, please be back in Fukui at least one week before classes start. In addition, in the case that one or more schools give directions, you must follow them.
- Refrain from non-essential activities for 2 weeks (coming on campus is allowed) after returning to Fukui and manage your health condition carefully.
- Take infection control measures thoroughly (wearing a mask, avoiding the 3Cs, and practicing good hand hygiene).
